1. About 100 troops were detrained at the Neubukow (M 55/0 51) railroad station at about 8 p.m. on 2 December 1949. The troops left by truck toward Wustrow (M 55/0 51)

2. Local residents said on 3 January that four trucks, occupied by Soviet Army personnel, moved through Rerik (M 55/0 51) about mid-December 1949, en route from the Neubukow railroad station to Wustrow.

The following official bulletin was observed in Rerik:
"It is to be expected that numerous separate rooms will soon have to be vacated. For this reason the housing office now asks a voluntary report on rooms available."

25X1A Comment:

Other reports indicated that component units of the 94th Gds Itz Rifle Div may be scheduled to move from the Flak Kaserne, Wismar, to the Wustrow Peninsula.
